

St Tudy Pre-school

Complaints Policy

Our pre-school is committed to providing a safe, stimulating, consistent and accessible service to children and their parents/carers.

We always aim to provide high quality services for everyone, but accept that sometimes things do not always go to plan. In such circumstances, we want to know so that we can put them right and learn from our mistakes.

This policy constitutes the Pre-school's formal Complaints Procedure. It will be displayed on the premises at all times.

Under normal circumstances, the manager will be responsible for managing complaints. If a complaint is made against the manager, the Registered Person on the committee will conduct the investigation. All complaints made to staff will be recorded in detail in a designated complaints file. The Registered Person will ensure that each complaint is fully investigated.

If the manager has good reason to believe that the situation has child protection implications, the designated Child Protection Officer will be informed who will then ensure that the local social services department is contacted, according to the procedure set out in the Child Protection policy. If any party involved in the complaint has good reason to believe that a criminal offence has been committed, then the police are contacted.

Stage One

If a parent/carer has a complaint about some aspect of the Pre-school's activity, or about the conduct of an individual member of staff, it will often be possible to resolve the problem by simply speaking to the individual concerned and/or to the manager. As outlined in the Parental/Carer involvement policy, the Pre-school is committed to open and regular dialogue with parents/guardians/carers and the Pre-school welcomes all comments on its services, regardless of whether they are positive or negative.

In the first instance, parents/guardians/carers are encouraged to speak directly to the relevant member of staff, if deemed appropriate. If not, the manager should be approached and they will try to resolve the problem. If a satisfactory resolution cannot be found, then Stage Two of the procedure will formally come into operation.

Stage Two

If informal discussions of a complaint or problem have not produced a satisfactory resolution to the situation, parents/guardians/carers should put their complaint in detail and in writing to the manager. Relevant names, dates, evidence and any other important information on the nature of the complaint should be included.

The Pre-school will acknowledge receipt of the complaint as soon as possible – within three working days at least – and fully investigate the matter. If there is any delay, the Pre-school will advise the parent/guardians/carers of this and offer an explanation. The Manager will be responsible for sending them a full and formal response to the complaint – within 28 days of having received the complaint*.

The formal response to the complaint from the pre-school will be sent to the parent/guardian/carer concerned and copied to all relevant members of staff if appropriate. The response will include an account of the findings; any actions taken as a result, recommendations for dealing with the complaint and any amendments to the pre-schools policies or procedures emerging from the investigation.

The manager will arrange a time to meet the parent/guardian/carer concerned and any other relevant individuals, such as members of staff, to discuss the complaint and the Pre-schools response to it. The manager will judge if it is best for all parties to meet together or if individual meetings are more appropriate.

If at the conclusion of this process parents/guardians/carers remain dissatisfied with the response they have received, the original complaint along with the Pre-school's response will be passed to the Registered Person who will adjudicate the case.

The Registered Person will communicate a detailed response, including any actions to be taken, to both the manager and the parents/guardians/carers concerned within 15 working days.

Records of all complaints must be retained for a period of at least 3 years from when the record was made.

Parents/guardians/carers will be allowed access to all written records about their children on request (except in exceptional cases).

Parents will be given on request, the address, email and telephone number of Ofsted.

Making a Complaint to Ofsted

Any parent/guardian/carer can, at any time, submit a complaint to Ofsted about any aspect of registered childcare provision. Ofsted will consider and investigate all complaints received.
